ABOUT THE WOODLAND SOCIETY

The Woodland Campus initiative is a holistic approach to maintaining healthy campus woodlands that will last for generations to come. Supporters of the Woodland Campus are members of the Woodland Society—individuals, families, and groups who wish to steward mature trees and nurturer of new plantings.

To learn more about the Woodland Campus initiative, visit cpf.iu.edu/woodland.

HOW TO USE THIS DOCUMENT

This digital booklet is a living repository of Woodland Society members. Commemorations are organized by decade, and the repository may be browsed at leisure, or to find a specific name, readers may make use of the keyboard shortcut for the search function by entering Ctrl-F (Command-F for Mac) and typing the name in question. ‘Groves’ reference neighborhoods of campus that may be studied in detail at cpf.iu.edu/woodland. This repository is updated quarterly.
